

Advocacy and infant mental health policy

Title	First Name	Last Name	Country	Paper Title	Presenting Author Name/s
Brief Oral Presentation
Ms	Valerie	Aylesbury	Australia	The Maternal Infant relationship still exists when infants are removed and placed in child protection systems; a reflection on care.	Ms Valerie Aylesbury
Professor	Tanya	Connell	Australia	What are the Essential Referral Pathways for Perinatal Women?	Professor Tanya Connell
Dr	Joanne	Crandall	Canada	Heartbreak Kids: Rewriting the Story of Developmental Adversity Through Advocacy	Dr Joanne Crandall
	Raylene	Lewis	Italy	Implementing IMH principles and strategies in a CAMHS Acute Service with Infants and families of CALD and Refugee Background.	Raylene Lewis
	F Cimagallic	Di Pietro	Italy	Social Support and Integration of Unaccompanied Immigrant Minors in Italy: the Case Study of Roma Capitale.	F Cimagalli C Di Pietro
	S	Bernardi	Italy	A multidisciplinary approach to HIV Infection in a multiethnic pediatric population	S Bernardi
	A	Ketchaji	Italy	Cameroon study. Immigration, Policies and Chronic Pathology in Infant Mental Health	A Ketchaji
	Nicole	Carbone	Italy	UNG Project Lilongwe Malawi	Nicole Carbone
	Simonetta	gentile	Italy	The migrant Child with Physical/Chronic Pathology and His Mental Health	S Gentile
Mr	Brandon	Hey	Canada	Creating new stories about infant and early years mental health: Lessons learned in supporting a Pan-Canadian agenda	Mr Brandon Hey & Mr Ed Mantler
Mrs	Sally	Hogg	United Kingdom	Rare Jewels: Parent-Infant Foundation's advocacy for specialised parent-infant relationship teams in the UK and support for new and developing teams.	Mrs Sally Hogg
Mrs	Sally	Hogg	United Kingdom	The 1001 Days Movement: campaigning for policy change in the UK	Mrs Sally Hogg
	Hui	Li	China	Investigation of current situation and public demands for promoting infant care services under three in Shaan Xi, China	Professor Hui Li
Dr	Elmarie	Malek	South Africa	Advocacy and implementation – stories of collaboration and commitment supporting 1st 1000 Days at-risk caregiver-infant relationships, Western Cape, South Africa.	Dr Elmarie Malek
Professor	Hugh	Masters	United Kingdom	From policy to action: the Scottish experience of perinatal and infant mental health	Professor Hugh Masters
Ms	Becky	Saunders	United Kingdom	Babies in Lockdown - Listening to parents to build back better	Ms Becky Saunders
Poster Presentation
Dr	Tanika	Eaves Simpson	United States	Workplace Supports in the Infant Mental Health Field: A Quantitative Exploration	Dr Tanika Eaves Simpson
Dr	Tetiana	Pushkarova	Ukraine	Developing Mother - Infant Mental Health services in Ukraine: the results of 15 years of cooperation with WAIMH.	Dr Tetiana Pushkarova
Dr	Angela	Tomlin	United States	Using Community Based Participatory Research in Infant Mental Health: The Development of the Reflective Interaction Observation Scale (RIOS)	Dr Angela Tomlin
Dr	Sylvie	Viaux Savelon	France	Infant Mental Health organization in France, Belgium and Switzerland : Operation, therapeutic modalities and limits.	Dr Sylvie Viaux Savelon
Workshop

Dr	Tanika	Eaves Simpson	United States	Self-care and the Clinical Infant Mental Health Practitioner: A qualitative exploration	Dr Tanika Eaves Simpson
Dr	Sarah	Hinshaw-Fuselier	United States	The Early Childhood Policy Leadership Institute: A model for advancing advocacy, policy, and action for young children's wellbeing	Dr Charles Zeanah, Dr Sarah Hinshaw-Fuselier, Dr Julianna Finelli & Ms Lindsay Usry
Dr	Merja-Maaria	Turunen	Finland	Young generation`s rejection of value of attachment and early relationships - why the world`s happiest people do`nt want to parent	Dr Merja-Maaria Turunen, Sinikka Makela & Minna Pahkin
Symposium
Dr	Maree	Foley	Switzerland	Prioritising infant mental health in public health - the why and the how	Dr Maree Foley, Professor Leonie Segal & Dr Nick Kowalenko
				The case for infant mental health - A public priority to address family violence and other social (and health) problems	Professor Leonie Segal
				A national workforce centre for children's mental health: A foundation for country-wide implementation	Dr Nick Kowalenko
				Bringing global goals home: Narratives for implementation	Dr Maree Foley
Ms	Callie	Silver	United States	Ending Early Childhood Expulsion in the US: One State's Efforts through Advocacy, Legislation, and Infant/Early Childhood Mental Health Consultation (I/ECMHC)	Ms Callie Silver, Mrs Allison Lowe-Fotos & Dr Julie Spielberger
				Ending Early Childhood Expulsion through Advocacy, Legislation, and Collaborative Rule Writing	Mrs Allison Lowe-Fotos
				Responding to high rates of expulsion: Findings from a pilot of a cross-system model of infant/early childhood mental health consultation	Dr Julie Spielberger
				Evaluating the Implementation of Illinois Early Childhood Expulsion Legislation	Ms Callie Silver
Dr	Paula	Zeanah	United States	Ethical challenges in IMH practice: It's time for a Code of Ethics	Dr Paula Zeanah, Dr Izaak Lim, Dr Charles Zeanah, Dr Jon Korfmacher & Dr Alison Steier
				Ethical dilemma in infant mental health involving child protection	Dr Charles Zeanah
				Codes of ethics in health professions: An historical and philosophical overview	Dr Izaak Lim
				Ethics and IMH: Next Steps	Dr Paula Zeanah
				Case vignette in ethical IECMH practice: An example from home visiting	Associate Professor Jon Korfmacher
				Ethics in IECMH practice: Current approaches to weighing "rightness" and "wrongness"	Dr Alison Steier