

Antenatal and perinatal practices

Title	First Name	Last Name	Country	Paper Title	Presenting Author Names
Brief Oral Presentation
Dr	Varvara	Anikina	Russian Federation	An attitude to a child and psychological functioning of women pregnant with in vitro fertilization before and after child's birth	Dr Varvara Anikina
Ms	Rosalie	Birkin	Australia	Collaborative Infant Mental Health Consultation	Ms Rosalie Birkin
Dr	Florence	Bristow	United Kingdom	Good practice guide for involving and supporting partners and families in specialist Perinatal Mental Health Services.	Dr Florence Bristow
Ms	Julia	Caldwell	Australia	The Compassionate Mums study: Shame and compassion in Australian mothers	Ms Julia Caldwell
Dr	Kellie	Cullen	Australia	Group Oriented Interpersonal Therapy for Women Experiencing Postnatal Mood Disorders and their Infants	Dr Kellie Cullen & Ms Ruth Gregory
Dr	Daphna	Dollberg	Israel	Infant social withdrawal and high risk pregnancy	Dr Daphna Dollberg
Miss	Julia	Garon-Bissonnette	Canada	Accumulation of risk indicators in pregnant women with histories of developmental trauma and psychiatric disorders: Implications for infant mental health	Miss Julia Garon-Bissonnette
Mrs	Naomi	Hull	Australia	Providing breastfeeding support during the COVID-19 pandemic: Concerns of mothers who contacted the Australian Breastfeeding Association	Mrs Naomi Hull
Mrs	Clare	Law	United Kingdom	Barriers and challenges to providing trauma informed care in maternity and perinatal mental health services	Mrs Clare Law
Ms	Deborah	Losada	United States	The power of relationships: Maternal reflections on traumatic birth, breastfeeding, and parenting	Ms Deborah Losada
Dr	Karen	Myors	Australia	Beyond SafeStart – Maternal, Child and Family Health Support for Women with Complex Needs	Dr Karen Myors
Ms	Shameera	Osman	Australia	Navigating the waters of uncertainty – the role of an inpatient antenatal occupational therapist	Ms Shameera Osman
Mrs	Macarena	San Martin Porter	Australia	Screening for prenatal depressive symptoms and neonatal outcomes: the Born in Queensland study	Mrs Macarena San Martin Porter
Mrs	Macarena	San Martin Porter	Australia	Screening for depressive symptoms during pregnancy and hospitalization for mental health problems during the postnatal period: Born in Queensland study	Mrs Macarena San Martin Porter
Dr	Tawali	Shah	China	Traditional beliefs and practices in newborn care among mothers in Shaanxi province, China	Dr Tawali Shah
Mrs	Martina	Smorti	Italy	Narratives of expectant mothers who are hospitalized for preterm premature rupture of membranes: Implications for mother's wellbeing and mother-infant relationship	Mrs Martina Smorti
Dr	Kerstin	Soederstroem	Norway	Multidisciplinary teamwork during pregnancy to prepare for or prevent child protection removal at birth. A case study	Dr Kerstin Soederstroem
Dr	Anne	Sved Williams	Australia	Adapting groups for mentally ill mothers and their infants from face-to-face to online: challenges and outcomes	Dr Anne Sved Williams
Professor	Susana	Tereno	France	The « Mater-nose » program: intervention's effect of actors-musicians in maternity ward on maternal anxiety and bonding	Professor Susana Tereno
Dr	Veronica	Toppi	Italy	Detecting perinatal anxiety: validation and use of PASS test (Perinatal Anxiety Screening Scale) for the PSA rating (Pregnancy Specific Anxiety)	Dr Veronica Toppi

Dr	Oxana	Turcanu	Moldova (the Republic of)	Changing the attitude towards newborn's death – from babies dying alone to the right to be held by their parents	Dr Oxana Turcanu
Ms	Kate	White	United States	Trauma-Informed Care from the Baby's Perspective: A 5 Point Model of Care to Support Birthing and Newborn Families	Ms Kate White
Poster Presentation
Miss	Joanne	Hanna	Australia	Assessment, prevalence and eating disorder treatment for women in the perinatal period with an eating disorder: A systematic review of the evidence	Miss Joanne Hanna
Dr	Rebecca	Johnson	United Kingdom	Effectiveness of the Solihull Approach online antenatal course for parents	Dr Hazel Douglas
Dr	Howard	Osofsky	United States	Maternal-Infant Support Team for High Risk Pregnant Women	Dr Howard Osofsky
Dr	Paola	Salvatori	Italy	Aim and methodology of intervention of psychological support with infertile couples: The experience from a tertiary hospital	Dr Paola Salvatori
Ms	Hisami	Shimonaka	Japan	Factors that promote midwifery practice to support women with perinatal mental health needs: qualitative research in three medical facilities.	Ms Hisami Shimonaka
Mrs	Martina	Smorti	Italy	The experience of a termination of pregnancy on a subsequent gestation: The distinct roles of elective and therapeutic abortions	Mrs Martina Smorti
Dr	Mami	Sonobe	Japan	Evaluation of a Mother and Child Support System using the Antenatal/Postnatal Promotional Guide	Dr Mami Sonobe
Professor	Franca	Tani	Italy	The relevance of the labor experiences in postpartum depression onset	Professor Franca Tani
Professor	Franca	Tani	Italy	The role of maternal perceived social support on the relationship between prenatal depression and labor experience	Professor Franca Tani
Dr	Hiroshi	Yamashita	Japan	Perinatal bonding Disorders: Concept analysis and Assessment method in infant mental health practice	Dr Hiroshi Yamashita
Dr	Pamela	Douglas	Australia	Neuroprotective Developmental Care: optimising perinatal and infant mental health	Dr Pamela Douglas
Mr	Nicholas	Kasovac	United States	Milk Men: Fathers, Breastfeeding Support, and Implications for Infant Mental Health	Mr Nicholas Kasovac
Mrs	Danae	Panagiotou	France	Evaluation of the impact of antenatal network care to women with anxious, depressive and bipolar disorders and to their infants.	Mrs Danae Panagiotou & Prof Denis Mellier
Dr	Laura	Vismara	Italy	Prenatal and postnatal maternal depression, general anxiety and fear of birth: their relations to infants' Negative Affectivity at three months	Dr Laura Vismara
Dr	Satoshi	Yago	Japan	Perinatal maternal mental health, sleep quality, and infant development: A Japanese prospective cohort study	Dr Satoshi Yago
Miss	Akiko	Yamada	Japan	Difficulties with daily life activities during early postpartum: relationship with postnatal depression at 1 month postpartum	Miss Akiko Yamada
Workshop
Ms	Kathy	Crouch	Australia	Antenatal mentalisation in Aboriginal Communities: A subsequent reflection of yarning to improve parental engagement with babies and early years services	Ms Kathy Crouch
Dr	Ben	Goodfellow	Australia	The founding and first case of a perinatal & infant mental health service in regional Australia	Dr Ben Goodfellow
Dr	Laura	Kean	Scotland	The Baby In The Room - The Unseen Transference Object	Dr Laura Kean, Dr Vicki Lehmann & Dr Donal Hanratty

Ms	Joy	Mackeith	United Kingdom	Development of the Parent and Baby Star: a keywork and outcomes tool to promote infant mental health	Ms Joy Mackeith & Mr Nick Karr
Ms	Rachel	Pardoe	United Kingdom	Providing a parent-infant therapeutic intervention online: Video Interaction Guidance - empowering parents during COVID-19	Ms Rachel Pardoe, Dr Cerith Waters & Dr Jessica Williams
Professor	Claire	Squires	France	A child for the self?	Professor Claire Squires
Dr	Anne	Sved Williams	Australia	Intervening with emotionally dysregulated mothers to change infant trajectories and maternal mental health	Dr Anne Sved Williams
Symposium
Ms	Katherine	O'Daly	Ireland	Beginnings and Beyond: Introducing the Newborn Behavioural Observation System (NBO) into Infant Mental Health Practice in Ireland	Ms Katherine O'Daly, Helen Ryan, Hazel Murphy, Dr Audrey Lonergran, Jill Sandvoss & Ms Catherine Maguire
				The NBO in the Irish Policy Context: Hearing the Baby's Voice	Helen Ryan
				Building an Infant Mental Health Community: How the NBO Helps Us to Listen to Babies, Parents and Ourselves	Dr Audrey Lonergran
				Implementing the NBO into Young Knocknaheeny's Infant Health and Wellbeing Programme: Giving Individuality and Voice to the Baby and her Contribution to Caregiving Relationships	Ms Catherine Maguire
				Integrating the NBO into the Work of the Clonmel Community Mothers Programme in Tipperary	Jill Sandvoss
				Using the NBO to Support Parents and Infants to Co-create New Narratives in Homeless/Emergency Accommodation Contexts in Ireland	Hazel Murphy
Dr	Celeste	St John-Larkin	United States	Exploring perinatal mood and anxiety disorders: implications for mother-infant relationships and treatment options	Dr Celeste St John-Larkin, Assistant Professor Jennifer J Paul, Associate Professor Debbie Carter, Dr Celeste St John-Larkin
				Exploring perinatal mood and anxiety disorders: implications for mother-infant relationships and treatment outcomes	Associate Professor Debbie Carter
				Exploring perinatal mood and anxiety disorders: implications for mother-infant relationships and treatment options	Assistant Professor Jennifer J Paul
				Exploring perinatal mood and anxiety disorders: implications for mother-infant relationships and treatment options	Dr Celeste St John-Larkin