

Cross cultural studies - Global strategies for infants, families and communities

Title	First Name	Last Name	Country	Paper Title	Presenting Author Names
Brief Oral Presentation
Mr	Richard	Banda	Malawi	Prevalence and associated factors of caregiving burden among caregivers of individuals with severe mental illness at St John of God.	Mr Richard Banda
Mrs	Caroline	Clavel	Canada	Experiences and challenges faced by refugee mothers in their resettlement process in Quebec, Canada	Mrs Caroline Clavel
Ms	Nicola	Dawson	South Africa	What watching others watching can tell us: Using video vignettes to prompt narrative in cross-cultural infant mental health research.	Ms Nicola Dawson
Dr	Angela	Fisher-Solomon	United States	Preliminary results on the FIOT: A new screening tool to measure infant confidence levels from dominant and bicultural groups	Dr Angela Fisher-Solomon
Dr	Neal	Horen	United States	Addressing the Social Emotional Needs of the youngest Syrian refugees	Dr Neal Horen
	Kristine	Kira		Promoting positive health outcomes in Maori and Pacific Islander mothers and infants living in Queensland Australia	Mrs Kirstine Kirra
Miss	Amanda	Moon	United States	Exploring the Impact of Program Incentives on the Mental Health and Development of Infants, Young Children, Parents, and Communities	Miss Amanda Moon
Mrs	Antonella	Sansone-Southwood	Australia	Integrating primal wisdom with modern science and practice as a global strategy for mothers, infants, families and communities.	Mrs Antonella Sansone-Southwood
	Ayelet	Talmi	United States	Early relationships and home environment: Impact on the development of young children in Rural Guatemala	Dr. Ayelet Talmi
Poster Presentation
Dr	Angela	Fisher-Solomon	United States	Confidence building in infancy: An analytical study of infant emotional behavior patterns	Dr Angela Fisher-Solomon
Video Presentation
Mr	Gilad	Amshalom	United States	"Co-Relation" Groups - Virtual support groups for Israeli parents. Understanding the messiness and repairs of relationships between parents and young children during COVID-19: A case study	Mr Gilad Amshalom
Workshop
Dr	Joshua D	Feder	United States	Wait - Join - Build: Implementing A Regional Responsive Caregiving Program to Improve Resilience in Young Children Impacted by Conflict	Dr Joshua D Feder
Dr	Neal	Horen	United States	Addressing the Social Emotional Needs of Infants and Young Children through a Social Police Force in Latin America	Dr Neal Horen & Hiram Almeida
Symposium
Dr	Azhar	Abuali	United Arab Emirates	Sociocultural influences on attachment-informed practices: The United Arab Emirates experience	Dr Azhar Abuali, Dr Hanan Derby, Mr Hawk Khair & Mrs Thanooja Naushad
				The influence of socio-cultural values on infants and toddlers with mental health irregularities in the Middle East	Mr Hawk Khair
				Cultural experiences and perceptions of the father role in postnatal care & attachment process	Dr Hanan Derby
				Development and implementation of an integrated family support group for parents of premature babies: A model developed in Latifa Hospital-Dubai	Mrs Thanooja Naushad
Dr	Linda	Gilkerson	United States	Cultural responsiveness rethought: Goodness of fit between an intervention's culture, and the indigenous cultures of practitioners, families and communities	Dr Linda Gilkerson, Alison Paea, Ms Josephine Lasike, Ms Maggie Felo, Denise Guy, Kim Cosgrove & Carole Norris-Shortle

				Reflecting on the culture of an intervention: FAN values, beliefs, and practices	Dr Linda Gilkerson
				A pacific home visiting service implements the facilitating attuned interaction (FAN) Approach	Alison Paea, Ms Josephine Lasike, Ms Maggie Felo & Dr Denise Guy
				The FAN approach: A pathway to cultural humility	Ms Kim Cosgrove & Ms Carole Norris-Shortle
Dr	Miri	Keren	Israel	Forced displacement and war: their impact on infants	Dr Miri Keren, Dr Campbell Paul & Sylvie Viaux Savelon
				Infants' Rights in War times	Dr Miri Keren
				Women seeking asylum and their babies : epidemiological and clinical data from France	Sylvie Viaux Savelon
				Seeking refuge and asylum: the infant's experience when parents lose hope	Dr Campbell Paul
Dr	Susan	Nicolson	Australia	Towards cultural safety, family access, infant wellbeing: Global stories of early parent-infant relationship support using the Newborn Behavioral Observations (NBO).	Chair: Kevin Nugent Presenters: Katharine Frost, Nicki Dawson, Kathy Crouch & Alexandra Murray Harrison
				The NBO (Newborn Behavioral Observations) in Asia and Latin America	Alexandra Murray Harrison
				"She is now beautiful", seeing and being seen, and the power of the Newborn Behavioural Observations (NBO).	Katharine Frost & Nicki Dawson
				Baby's First Yarn: Cultural co-design of a baby-led, infant mental health support for Aboriginal families in the first 100 days.	Kathy Crouch
Dr	Joy	Osofsky	United States	Extending infant mental health training to Asia: The Hong Kong experience	Dr Joy Osofsky, Dr Joyce W.S Mok & Francis Ip
				Development of Infant Mental Health in Hong Kong	Dr Joyce W.S. Mok
				Implementation of Child-Parent Psychotherapy Training in Hong Kong	Dr Joy Osofsky
				The Cultural Issues Encountered in Child-Parent Psychotherapy in Hong Kong: A Case Illustration	Francis Ip
Dr	Ruth	Paris	United States	Immigrant/refugee families with infants and young children: Experiences, needs and interventions	Dr Tova Walsh, Dr Vonda Jump Norman, Dr Mihoko Maru & Dr Aseel Al Shawareb
				Parenting young children in the context of US immigration enforcement	Dr Tova Walsh
				Trauma at the border follows children after reunion with mothers: Maternal experiences and support of young children's resilience	Dr Vonda Jump Norman
				Family and parenting predictors of social-emotional development of Latinx immigrant young children	Dr Mihoko Maru
				The influence of implementing two training programs for Syrian refugee young mothers on parenting skills in Jordan	Dr Aseel Akram Al Shawareb
Dr	Robin Lynn	Treptow	United States	Creating stories of global peace: A trio of reflective initiatives designed to reduce hostilities by broadening infant mental health impact	Dr Robin Lynn Treptow, Dr Joshua D Feder & Mrs Karen Harris
				Coming together to stop war: Using our ethics codes and policy statements to weave vivid(vital) stories of our peacebuilding duties	Dr Robin Lynn Treptow
				Can limited staff training and reflective practice change resilience, parental behavior, and developmental trajectories in toddlers impacted by armed conflict?	Dr Joshua D Feder

				Pathways to peace: Expression of empathy among preschool-age children using a kind and engaging activity	Mrs Karen Harris
Dr	Hisako	Watanabe	Japan	Play, Art, Narrative and Science: Cultural Approaches in Asia Enhancing Intuition and Creativity to Overcome Massive Disasters	Dr Hisako Watanabe, Dr Erum Mariam, Dr Shintaro Kikuchi, Ms Kanae Narui & Miss Miyuki Matsuzaka
				Play to Heal and Play to Learn in the Context of Indigenous Culture	Dr Erum Mariam
				Play to Recreate Resilient Community: PEPKids Koriyama (indoor playground)	Dr Shintaro Kikuchi
				Two Approaches of Play Therapies for Infants and Parents in Post-Emergency Fukushima Infant-Parent Play/Parent Meeting and Sandplay Technique	Ms Kanae Narui
				Mothers and infants in Fukushima nine years after Japan's nuclear catastrophe, and how science helped to revive mothers' narratives	Miss Miyuki Matsuzaka