

Observation and assessment: diagnosis, treatment and clinical issues

Title	First Name	Last Name	Country	Paper Title	Presenting Author Names
Brief Oral Presentation
A/Prof	Jenny	Smith		The Implementation of a Parent Child Interaction Assessment Tool within Residential Early Parenting Units.	Associate Professor Jenny Smit
Dr	Dan	Garrick	Australia	Recovering the Traumatized Infant through Child - Parent Psychotherapy: Regeneration by working within the constraints of Autism	Dr Dan Garrick
Dr	Jyotishman	Pathak	United States	Development and Validation of a Postpartum Depression Risk Prediction Model Using Machine Learning	Dr Jyotishman Pathak
Professor	Ayşe	Rodopman Arman	Turkey	Early Prediction Factors from Autism Spectrum Disorder Screening in Primary Care Setting: The Turkish National Action Plan Preliminary Study	Professor Ayşe Rodopman Arman
Mrs	Shiqin	Shen	China	The applying of Dynamic-Maturational Model of Attachment and Adaptation (DMM) to the psychological therapy in Post Natal Depression.	Mrs Shiqin Shen
Mrs	Kathryn	Thornton	Australia	Parental Attachment Style: Does it Impact on Treatment?	Mrs Kathryn Thornton
Dr	Camilla	Modesti	Italy	Culturally sensitive PTSD screening in non-Western youth: an intervention program in Central African Republic	Dr Camilla Modesti
Dr	JoAnne	Solchany	United States	Munchausen's by Proxy: A case examination of a child's path through trauma and healing from birth through age 3	Dr JoAnne Solchany
Poster Presentation
Dr	Zeynep	Biringen	United States	Screening for Emotional Availability (EA) and a single session of parent coaching (the EA Brief)	Dr Zeynep Biringen
Professor	Yoko	Hamada	Japan	Cross-checking responses to the Japanese IFEEL Pictures and the psychotherapy process of a physically abusive mother	Professor Yoko Hamada
Dr	Hilary	Holmes	Australia	Behavioural / developmental disorders and ACEs (Adverse Childhood Experiences): a community paediatric clinic study	Dr Hilary Holmes
Mrs	Suvi	Luomala	Finland	Dialectical behavior therapy based skills training group for preschool children with emotional regulation problems at school environment	Mrs Suvi Luomala
Mrs	Lisa	Mckeown	Australia	The prevalence of PTSD of mothers and fathers of high-risk infants admitted to NICU: A systematic review	Mrs Lisa Mckeown
Dr	Sawako	Nagaya	Japan	Cross-checking responses to the Japanese IFEEL Pictures and the psychotherapy process of a mother with parenting-based anxieties	Dr Sawako Nagaya
Professor	Arata	Oiji	Japan	Usefulness of the emotional availability scales for supporting mothers of children with autism spectrum disorder	Professor Arata Oiji
Ms	Lydia Yao	Stuhrmann	Germany	German Version of the Prenatal Parental Reflective Functioning Questionnaire (P-PRFQ): A Preliminary Analysis	Ms Lydia Yao Stuhrmann
Ms	Rose-angélique	Belot	France	Maternity specificities with the Rorschach method: Results of a non-consulting French population in the post-natal phase	Ms Rose-angélique Belot
Professor	Denis	Mellier	France	An intersubjective perspective of psychopathology according to Infant Observation : the construction of psychic envelopes	Professor Denis Mellier
Professor	Claire	Squires	France	Babies observation in a perinatal unit and in a nursery .	Professor Claire Squires
Workshop
Dr	Diane	Philipp	Canada	Videofeedback for coparenting and family functioning: Using the Lausanne Trilogue Play task as a super brief intervention with young families.	Dr Diane Philipp
Ms	Kjersti	Sandnes	Norway	The Psychometric Properties of the Working Model of the Child Interview	Ms Kjersti Sandnes
Ms	Carol	Hardy	United Kingdom	Assessing mental health difficulties in under 4s: examining clinical presentations in high-risk community populations	Ms Carol Hardy & Ms Eva Sprecher

Video Presentation
Dr	Karen	Hazell Raine	Australia	Antenatal interpersonal sensitivity as an early predictor of vulnerable mother–infant relationship quality	Dr Karen Hazell Raine
Symposium
Dr	Megan	Chapman	Australia	Supporting reflective functioning in complex clinical samples part 2: Time and cost efficient measurement of Reflective Functioning	Discussant: Lynn Priddis Co-chairs: Megan Chapman & Anne Michele Stacks Ms Jerrica Pitzen, Dr Izaak Lim, Dr Tina Adkins & Dr Lela Rankin Williams
				Complex feeding difficulties and parental reflective functioning	Dr Izaak Lim
				Maternal psychopathology moderates the relationship between self-reported and observed parenting reflectivity	Ms Jerrica Pitzen
				The Development, Application and Preliminary Validation of a New Short Interview for Assessing Parental Reflective Functioning: RF-FMSS	Tina Adkins
				Does Infant Carrying Enhance Parental Reflective Functioning? A Three-Year follow-up of Teen Moms Using the Five Minute Speech Sample	Lela Rankin Williams
Dr	Diane	Philipp	Canada	Reflective Family Play: Experiences in working with whole families across a variety of contexts	Dr Diane Philipp, Dr Karen Gaunson, Dr Germaine Gergis & Dr Claud Bisaillon
				RFP with beginner therapists in a university clinic: a case example	Dr Claud Bisaillon
				Meeting children where they are at: Reflective Family Play with very young children presenting with neurodevelopmental difficulties.	Dr Karen Gaunson
				Adopting and adapting Reflective Family Play within an Australian Child and Adolescent Mental Health setting	Dr Germaine Gergis
				Reflective Family Play 2.0: Adaptations for separated coparents, single parenting and preliminary within case outcomes.	Dr Diane Philipp